

Mike Milward

Strategic Advisor, NPHI

As a strategic advisor to the National Partnership for Healthcare and Hospice Innovation, Mike works to advance the organization's strategic and innovative support to its members and helps coordinate outreach to potential new member organizations across the country.

Prior to joining NPHI, Mike served as CEO of Hospice of Santa Cruz County on the central coast of CA. Mike is an attorney, having graduated from the University of Santa Clara Law School in 1981. Subsequently, Mike did his graduate work in Theology and Spirituality at the Graduate Theological Union at UC Berkeley. Mike has served as a hospice chaplain and bereavement specialist for almost 25 years.

In addition to his advisory role with NPHI, Mike serves as the CEO of the California Hospice Network, an affiliation of CA non-profit Hospices.
