

WellSky Overview

WellSky is a technology company leading the movement for intelligent, coordinated care. We provide innovative software and analytics solutions that are purpose-built to make the work of hospice and palliative care teams easier and more effective, while improving end-of-life care for patients and families. WellSky is transforming care through real-time connectivity that allows providers to collaborate and continuously improve to realize care's potential.

For more information, please contact:

Kraig McKinley

SVP, Sales

Kraig.McKinley@WellSky.com

